

Contact: Name of Contact
E-mail Address
Telephone Number

(Teacher Name) Awarded Kappa Delta Pi Classroom Teacher Grant

(Indianapolis, IN)—(Teacher Name), a (grade taught)-grade teacher at (Name of school, city, state), has been awarded a $150 classroom teacher grant from Kappa Delta Pi, International Honor Society in Education, headquartered in Indianapolis, Indiana.

The funds will be used by (Teacher Name) to

A (# of years as a teacher)-year teacher, (name of teacher) submitted a written proposal last fall describing the program (he/she) wanted to institute and how the funds would be allocated. A review committee evaluated the grant proposals that were submitted from educators around the country, and selected the recipients in December 2006.

Founded in 1911, Kappa Delta Pi, International Honor Society in Education, is a dynamic learning community that recognizes and enhances growth in scholars and leaders. The Society’s vision is advanced through:

- Recognizing and confirming the status of scholars and educators to achieve and sustain preeminence in teaching, scholarship, and service;
- Focusing on effectively addressing the needs of members through the phases of their careers as scholars and educators; and
- Providing an energetic, diverse learning community that enhances professional growth through high-quality programs, services, and products.