Hello,

You know Solutions offers "Resources for Your Education Needs," through Research Reports, Ideas to Go and other listings in the table of contents. However, these selections are not all KDP offers.

At KDP Online you can find additional Research Reports, the Teacher Hotline, podcasts, and Record archives. Also, watch for monthly featured Web sites in Teaching Resources; sometimes they're member sites!

How can Solutions serve you? Let us know at NewsEditor@kdp.org. Your opinions do matter!

Monthly Highlight

eChapter, KDP's virtual learning community covers a range of topics, including Finding Funding for Grad School on November 3, 8 p.m. See the calendar here. If you've missed these interactive Webinars, you can listen to podcasts of them, as well as other topical podcasts in the Communities section of KDP Online. See the topics.

Research Reports

What Works Clearinghouse has released a report based on seven studies conducted on Read 180, an intervention program for elementary through high school students whose reading achievement is below the proficient level. READ 180 addresses gaps in students' skills through the use of a computer program, literature, and direct instruction in reading skills. Read more.

The DOE's Institute of Education Sciences offers funding grants for research and research training in various programs. To learn more about the programs, visit its funding opportunities section.

Education in the News

Theodore R.Sizer, one of the country's most prominent education-reform advocates, succumbed to colon cancer last Wednesday. He was 77. Read more. For other headlines across the country, including the latest Arne Duncan target, turn to Education in the News, brought to you courtesy of TeachersCount.org.

The Secretary of Education's comments about teacher education programs hit hard last week, but Duncan's speech was not ALL negative, according to a column in The Chronicle of Higher Education. What do you think? What changes do you see for colleges of education?

Bringing current research, news, ideas, Web resources, and topical articles to you monthly.

Post your comments on the KDP Discussion Board.

Resource Roundup

KDP helps you keep up on the Net! Look to Resource Roundup for recommended sites for all educators-preservice teachers, practitioners, graduate students, and faculty. Each resource listing, such as Smithsonian Education gives a site description to guide your Web travels.

Pro Pointers

Enhance memorization and recall with "dend-writes" or any of 9 other neruo-logical tips in this issue of Propointers. Do you have a topic suggestion or would you like to write for ProPointers? Contact the editor!

Ideas to Go

Need a little inspiration that you can run with? Read or download Ideas to Go for quick tips and ideas your colleagues have used in their classroom. Share them with your colleagues too! Relationship Building is the focus of this month's Ideas to Go. View now. By the way, you can submit your classroom tips to share with other educators!

"I love this! A brief article we can read right away!"

Thank you!"
