

EXPERIENCING DEWEY

INSIGHTS FOR TODAY'S CLASSROOM

In this collection of essays, 45 authors consider their favorite Dewey quotations and share how Dewey has impacted their lives—specifically their teaching practices. Each essay sheds light on a Dewey gem and its relevance for classroom practice.

"I urge readers to follow the example of the commentators by responding themselves to the quotes from Dewey. That adventure promises to be enlightening and enjoyable."

—David T. Hansen, President, The John Dewey Society

About the Editors

Donna Adair Breault is an Assistant Professor of Educational Leadership at Georgia State University where she teaches graduate courses in curriculum, supervision, and organizational theory. Her research involves studying Dewey in the context of curriculum and administration with a special focus on inquiry.

Rick Breault is an Associate Professor in the Department of Elementary and Early Childhood at Kennesaw State University where he teaches in the undergraduate teacher education program. His research interests include professional development schools, preservice teacher thinking, and church-state tensions in public schools.

KAPPA DELTA PI

International Honor Society in Education

www.kdp.org

ISBN 0-912099-42-9

9 780912 099422