Hey there student-teacher,

First, let me congratulate you on reaching this education major milestone. You've studied the materials, completed projects, read the textbooks, passed the tests, and now you are ready to apply what you've learned over the past few years during student teaching.

Thank you for downloading the student-teacher badge template. This template measures 3.5 x 2.2 inches and fits a standard plastic badge holder. However, if this doesn't fit the badge holder you have, you can resize the graphic as needed.

This digital editable design on Canva includes 7 different name badges you can edit.

To access the canva editable design please click here

You will need to sign into Canva or register for FREE with your email address. You can edit several pieces on this design such as

- Name
- Student Teacher field (Ex. 3rd Grade Student Teacher)
- College or University

I wish you the best of luck during your student teaching experience. Please share your name badge on social and tag me @SFecich (Instagram or Twitter).

Way to go student teacher.

EduMagically yours,

Dr. Sam Fecich
